

Innocence Canada

Wrongful Conviction Day, October 3

wrongfulconvictionday.com

Innocence Canada is a Canadian non-profit organization dedicated to identifying, advocating for, and exonerating individuals convicted of a crime that they did not commit. In addition, they work to prevent future injustices through legal education and reform. Find out more at www.innocencecanada.com

Western University is participating in International Wrongful Conviction Day by bringing out of the shadows the real impacts of wrongful convictions. We hope that the campus community and the public will come to hear our guest speaker, and raise awareness about wrongful convictions. # Death in the Family – One More Victim O'Neil Blackett

behind bars.

One of them, O'Neil Blackett,
battled to clear his name for 17 years

Guest Speaker, O'Neil Blackett, will tell his story, and speak about wrongful conviction in general, and its effects on individuals and society. Everyone welcome.
