Blended Learning Courses

Welcome to Sociology 2235. This is a blended course. In a blended course between 30% and 100% of the learning occurs in the online interactive learning environment. This course will be primarily online for the Fall semester, but there may be some in-person lectures and exams, depending on restrictions. In the Winter term there will be some in-person classes held. You will be given lots of advance notice.

Class Time: Tuesdays 6:30 to 8:30 pm

Zoom Lectures: <https://westernuniversity.zoom.us/j/92607689703> Passcode: will be posted on OWL

In-person Lectures: SSC 2020 when scheduled. You will be given lots of advance notice.

Many of you will have taken online courses last year, but they may be a new way of learning for some of you. Virtual learning offers accessibility to learning at Western with flexibility to plan your studies around work and family commitments; online courses are accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. In this course you are expected to attend lectures, complete your readings, and submit your assignments by the scheduled due dates. Students should be prepared to commit 6 to 8 hours per week on this course. Some students may find virtual learning more challenging, compared to learning in on-campus classrooms. There are numerous strategies that can help students succeed in online learning. I will be posting them on OWL. I hope you enjoy this course!

Although this academic year might be different, Western University is committed to a thriving campus. We encourage you to check out the Digital Student Experience website <https://www.uwo.ca/se/digital/> to manage your academics and well-being. Additionally, the following link provides available resources to support students on and off campus: <https://www.uwo.ca/health/>.

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this course, students will be able to

- understand the intersection between family life and the public sphere.
- comprehend the various theories used to explain the structure of family dynamics.
- understand how families from various cultures are connected, despite their different lifestyles.
- see how contemporary patterns of work reflect changes in the economy and ideologies of gender.
- recognize that there is no single institutionalized lifecourse with respect to family development.
- appreciate the diversity in structure and processes of families in contemporary Canadian society.
- see how difficulties like poverty, abuse, addictions, etc. negatively impact family members.
- understand how various social policies are implemented to aid the functioning of families.

Course Description

This course introduces students to the sociological analysis of families and gives them an understanding of family within the larger social system. The course begins by looking at different conceptual and theoretical issues, which challenge the commonly-held views of the family. We will consider how families are formed and look at the choices people make regarding marriage and parenting. We will take a closer look at different aspects of family life, including the distribution of paid and unpaid work within families, diverse family forms, and intergenerational issues. We will consider adversities experienced by families, including violence, addictions, and divorce. Finally, we will consider policy issues relevant to families and the future prospects for the family in a changing society.

Prerequisite(s): 1.0 from Sociology 1020, 1021E, 1025A/B, 1026F/G, 1027A/B.

Antirequisites: None

Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded, that all course prerequisites have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any antirequisite course(s) that they have taken. If the student does not have the requisites for a course, and does not have written special permission from his or her Dean to enroll in the course, the University reserves the right to cancel the student's registration in the course. This decision may not be appealed. Financial and academic penalties will apply to a student who is dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Required Text

1. Sociology of Family Custom Edition. 2019. Toronto, ON: Oxford University Press. Available through the Campus Bookstore at Western. ISBN #9780199016167.
2. Additional readings may be posted on OWL.

How to Contact Me

I will be available to respond to questions regarding the course, requirements, and materials during Zoom meetings, following our online 'lectures' on Zoom, and possibly at in-person office hours. You are also welcome to communicate with me through messages on OWL. I will receive your messages in this course site. Please do NOT email me. I will respond to messages on OWL within 48 hours Monday to Friday between 9 and 5. Please refrain from messaging me with questions that have already been addressed online, on the course outline, or in class.

Evaluation Breakdown – Further details will be provided at the beginning of the course.

Evaluation Element	Worth	Due Date
Participation in Polls & Discussions	10%	Throughout the course
Journals	10% 10%	November 23 rd March 15 th
Midterm Exams May be online or in-person depending on restrictions	20% 20%	October 26 th January 18 th
Final Exam May be online or in-person depending on restrictions	30%	During April Exam Period

Participation

Students will have the opportunity to obtain 10% of their grade by engaging in the course, for example, by responding to polls and discussion questions, etc.

Journals

The journals will give students the opportunity to examine and consider some topics related to families. Students will submit 2 journals – one each term. A late penalty of 5% per day including weekends will be applied.

Midterms and Final Exams

The midterms and final examination will be done either online on OWL and proctored on Zoom or in-person at Western, depending on restrictions. You will be given the information in ample time. The exams are NOT cumulative and will cover all course material, including lectures, PP slides, recordings, assigned readings, videos, guest presenters, etc. for the weeks outlined on the Schedule of Classes. They could include multiple choice or short answer questions, definitions, and true/false questions.

Grades

Due to privacy regulations, I am unable to send marks or discuss issues regarding grades by email. Please discuss them with me over a Zoom appointment. Final exam grades will be posted on OWL once they have been approved by the department. PLEASE NOTE: There will be NO extra work assigned for the purpose of improving grades. It is unfair to other students in the class who are not given the same opportunity. Also, I am unable to increase marks unless warranted. PLEASE DON'T ASK!

In keeping with departmental grade guidelines, it is expected that the class average for this course will be around 72%. Should the final overall grades yield a value significantly lower, grades will be adjusted upward to ensure an appropriate mean for the class.

Important Policies

Policies for Assignment Deadlines:

Projects/presentations and journals must be submitted on OWL by the due date. Late submissions will be penalized 5% per day including weekends.

A Note on Plagiarism:

Students must write their assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major scholastic offence (the Scholastic Offence Policy can be viewed in the Western Academic Calendar).

Plagiarism Checking:

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (www.turnitin.com).

Policies on Examinations

No electronic devices will be allowed during examinations.

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

Policy on Missed Exams

Make-up exams will be granted with approved documentation only. If you have a conflict with an exam date, it is your responsibility to discuss it with the Academic Counseling office as soon as possible, but no later than one week before the regularly scheduled exam and provide documentation of the conflict. If approved, you will be allowed to schedule a make-up exam.

If you miss an exam (this includes make-up exams) due to illness or for any other unforeseen reason, please notify me by email within 24 hours of the missed exam because I need to know that you missed the exam. You then must provide notification and documentation to your Academic Counselor within 48 hours. If your problem is medical in nature, you should be seen by your doctor on the date of the exam. If your Academic Counselor agrees that your reasons are legitimate and are supported by your medical doctor's documentation, you will be allowed to write a make-up exam. Make-up exams and extensions for assignment deadlines will be granted with approved documentation only. If you have a conflict with one of the exam dates, it is your responsibility to discuss it with the Academic Counseling office as soon as possible, but no later than one week before the regularly scheduled exam and provide documentation of the conflict. If approved, you will be allowed to schedule a make-up exam.

Academic Consideration for Missed Work

Students who are seeking academic consideration for missed work during the semester may submit a Self-Reported Absence (SRA) form online provided that the absence is 48 hours or less and the other conditions specified in the Senate policy are met. Two important exceptions to this rule: SRAs will NOT be allowed for final examinations or assessments worth more than 30% of a given course. Students whose absences are expected to last longer than 48 hours, or where the other conditions detailed in the policy are not met (e.g., work is worth more than 30% of the final grade, the student has already used 2 self-reported absences, the absence is during the final exam period), may receive academic consideration by submitting a Student Medical Certificate (for illness) or other appropriate documentation (for compassionate grounds) to your Home Faculty Academic Counselling office.

All students pursuing academic consideration, regardless of type, must contact their instructors no less than 24 hours following the end of the period of absence to clarify how they will be expected to fulfill the academic responsibilities missed during their absence. Students are reminded that they should consider carefully the implications of postponing tests or midterm exams or delaying submission of work, and are encouraged to make appropriate decisions based on their specific circumstances.

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness

Western's policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness can be found at www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf.

Students must see the Academic Counsellor and submit all required documentation in order to be approved for certain accommodation:

https://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/procedures/academic_consideration.html

Accessibility Options

Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at 519 661-2111 x 82147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation. Information regarding accommodation of exams is available on the Registrar's website: www.registrar.uwo.ca/examinations/accommodated_exams.html

Scholastic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following web site: www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

Mental Health

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western (http://uwo.ca/health/mental_wellbeing/index.html) for a complete list of options how to obtain help.
